

Amendments to LGI Homes, Inc. Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

The Board of Directors of LGI Home, Inc. (the “Company”) approved amendments to the Company’s Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the “Code”) that are effective as of January 1, 2020. The Code was amended to (i) better mirror the Company’s culture and core values, (ii) more clearly outline expectations for business conduct, such as prohibition of discrimination and harassment and creating a respectful workplace, (iii) more clearly define the policy on conflicts of interest including related party transactions and meals, gifts, and entertainment and the process for reporting any actual or potential conflicts, and (iv) streamline the reporting process for actual or potential violations of the Company’s policies. This description of the amendments to the Code does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Code, posted at <http://investor.lgihomes.com/corporate-governance>.
